

Jean Hutchens

March 22, 1929 - December 20, 2015

After a lengthy battle with cancer, Doris Jean Hutchens, 86, passed away peacefully on Sunday, December 20, 2015, at her residence in Thorntown, with her family by her side. She was born March 22, 1929, in Bridgeton, Indiana, a daughter of Harvey and Mary (Bolen) Adams.

Raised in Bridgeton, Jean was a graduate of Bridgeton High School.

On May 17, 1947, she was married to O. Jack Hutchens in Parke County, Indiana. The couple moved to Thorntown in 1953. Jack and Jean always reflected Christ's love for others. They went on numerous work trips to areas hit by disaster and helped rebuild or clean up homes. These mission trips exemplified the couples' passion. They celebrated their 50th anniversary in 1997. He passed away December 4, 2002.

Jean had worked for Allen's Regal Grocery Store and Home National Bank where she began as a teller and retired a bookkeeper.

She was an avid jigsaw puzzler, reader, and loved watching sports, especially the Pacers and the Colts. She faithfully followed her grandchildren through their high school sports and activities. Living for Jesus was first and foremost in Jean's life. The love and devotion she had for her family was shared with everyone even through her illness. She was a fighter and a brave lady.

“ *Dear Linda and family,
I know the positive love and caring you felt for your Mother. You spoke with such admiration of her always. She is now resting in her heavenly home with your Dad, in the company of our Lord. I am thinking of you and your family in prayer and blessing for all. Peace and love to you all. Until I see you again remember it is through memories that roses bloom in the winter.*

“ I am so sad for myself and all of you, but I absolutely know that Jean is dancing on the streets of gold praising her savior all the day long. Angie Guinn sent me the announcement from the paper this morning. I would love to be there to comfort you all and celebrate at the same time, but unfortunately have to work. :(Please pass my condolences and hugs to all of your family. Jean will always have a special place in my heart.

“ I'll always remember my Aunt Do as a vibrant, happy, loving Christian woman. She was very special to me. I'm thankful for the times we got to get together her and her daughters and me and my mother and share beautiful memories. I will miss her, but I know she is in a far better place. She's gone "home". Our continued prayers are with her family. God Bless You!
Love,
Donna & Mike
