“ I hate that I was just told today by my sister that my first love had past away I couldn't understand why he wasn't on my FB for now years or why we hadn't talked jess I loved talking with you through the years and my love for you was real and now your in heaven with Darrick who loved you and you loved him!! I loved your momma and laughed with your dad but I don't know how those stories got told but you were my love! I remember being at Kingman grocery store looking for hamburger for my momma you came out from the back and and saw me and dropped the tray I turned and saw you and dropped the Hamburger package it was on lol through the years we loved each other in many different ways but I do wish the family would of told me only because I couldn't understand why I could get you or why you hadn't called NOW I KNOW your with Jesus and your momma and mine and Darrick!! I only found out because of les I've cried for me I've cried over you but I know you can breath now your still thought about and loved
