“ I met Jim through Ultimate Golf three years ago when. I joined my very first team and he had become one of my best friends on that platform. I spoke to Jim quite often and he had been someone I confided in from time to time and was always more than willing to listen even when I was just blowing off steam. I can't express how sorry I am for those who knew him and loved him he was a great man and friend and I will truly miss him..

Your friend,
