

Joan Clarkson

December 18, 1929 - November 13, 2015

Lois Joan Clarkson, 85, passed away at her home in Lebanon on Friday, November 13, 2015, surrounded by her loving family. She was born in Vincennes, Indiana on December 18, 1929, a daughter of the late Arthur H. Plass and Clara (Evans) Plass Coy.

She was formerly married to Kenneth Ray Clarkson, Jr. and they divorced.

At the age of three months, Joan and her family moved from Vincennes to Indianapolis then to Lebanon in 1962 where she had since resided. She attended schools in Indianapolis; graduating from Shortridge High School in 1947. She had attended Ivy Tech where she studied Management.

During her working career, she had been employed by Dow Chemical and Commercial Filters. Then in 1981, she went to work at Witham Memorial Hospital at the Outpatient Registration Desk, retiring in 1994. She was a member of Grace Baptist Church and a former member of Bethel Baptist Church.

Joan enjoyed painting and playing the piano. She was a devoted mother, grandmother, and friend. She was always one to do things for others.

“ I also knew Joan from working with her at Witham. She was our registration person on the 3-11 shift. She always had a smile and always loved seeing "the little red heads". In later years she would always ask about my kids. Everyone loved Joan.

“ I met Joan when I started working at Witham in 1989. I got to know Joan better when I moved to the ER. Loved working with her. She always asked about my family wanted to know how they were doing.

Joan you will be missed by the Hatfield's.

Thank you for your years of friendship. Gods Peace be with your family.
