“ I met John when I was 17 years old. I was dating his baby girl, Amber at the time. Outside of being the first to help give him his first grandson, (David) I will always remember underneath the intimidating persona he gave off when I first met him, he always had a big heart and was like a father to me for many years. Ill never forget when he took me in to raise as his own when I had no one else to turn to. The lessons of fatherhood he taught, the values he shared, the summer time camping and fishing trips we took, the warm magical christmas's we shared and the personal talks we had. He was one of the most unique individuals Ive ever had the pleasure of knowing and I will miss him deeply. John, you will always have a place in my heart and although you have moved on to a better place, the memories you left behind will last a life time. I love you and I know you are at peace and expereincing the relishes of heaven now. You will forever be apart my life. Until we meet again, rest in peace.
