“ Joyce was a beautiful person. I was fortunate to work with her for eight years & knew her before that time. She was one of my sister's best friends. I know Joyce loved her family and I'm so sorry for your loss. There's a new Angel in heaven watching over you now. I will keep you my thoughts and prayers. Take care and God Bless.

“ I met Joyce through her husband, Dave. He and I worked together for more than 40 years at the Pueblo Chieftain. My late husband and I could see how happy Dave was when Joyce came into his life. I remember him saying, "whatever she wants." He was talking about the kind of car she wanted, but he might have been talking about their lives. I know he very much enjoyed being connected to her family in Indiana. A wonderful woman, gone too soon. Judy Hildner.
