“ Oh my - I don't know where to start - I could write a book about this amazing woman. Our friendship stems from the Music Business - We met around 1970 when I was a sales manager for Wilking Music - opening the first mall store in Castleton Square - I sought her out to be the head teacher of that store- but from there, in no time, she was the head of teachers for all 4 mall stores and the downtown store as well. Judy was a dynamo, dedicated, upbeat motivator and was dearly loved by everyone in the music industry. She was hard working, determined, kind, and incredibly successful in all of her undertakings. Her love for her devoted husband, her children and horses and 'muscle cars' was something to behold. She was a fiercely loyal friend, and I will dearly miss her. Rest in peace, sweet lady...and may you be hearing those words, "Well done, good and faithful servant". .

“ She was an amazing loving and caring grandmother. She was also the most positive person I've ever known. Even during the hardest times she always had a smile on her face and looked towards the good. She was not only my grandmother but also my best friend. She was always there for me when I need a shoulder to cry on or advice and guidance. I will never forget our bike rides together or when we would go fishing. She was always there for any and all of my school functions, she never missed even one. Grandma is and forever will be my hero.

Cody, Excellent description and portrait of your Grandma! She was like a second mom to our family too. She will be missed, but we will see her again! Beth (Ufkes) McCormack
