“ Even though I only knew Kent for 5 or so years he brought lots of joy and memories to my life. Days spent riding horses on the farm, shooting the shit talking about guns and hunting and even cleaning his house for him when times got tough. He treated me like another granddaughter and I even got hugs which is funny cuz from what I was told he was a scary mean old man but apparently as the time past the scary and mean part faded. I remember being the one to have to ask permission to ride 4 wheelers or come out and ride the horse becuase Logan said he won't say no to you he loves you. He was a great man and I'm glad he came into my life. Fly high old man I love you and you will truly be missed!
