“ I am fortunate to have met Kristin at Purdue. She was such a beautiful person. Her kindness and sincerity flowed from her always. Our lives have paralleled ever since meeting; with our time at Purdue, weddings, and even motherhood all just months apart. Through keeping up with the blog posts and just knowing Kristin- her faith, strength, and determination are beyond admirable. I have often thought of you all, and will continue to do so, as our daughters hit milestones and birthdays together. I can only imagine how her daily life and motherhood differed. I am however certain she faced it with such grace and deliberation as she faced every other thing in her life. Her smile and heart were contagious, they will forever live on with so many. You are in my family's thoughts and prayers. I am incredibly sorry for your family's loss.

“ My name is Amanda Turner, Kristin and I spent most of my senior year of high school inseparable. She was in the color guard and I was in the marching band. For two years in a row, she invited me over to her family's home to help set up their Christmas decorations. I will always remember her dad's Christmas spirit, and wonderful hot chocolate. Kristin was the 3rd angel to our Charlies Angels group. Jenn, her, and I had a lot of fun together. She will forever be missed. My heart goes out to her husband and her family.

“ I had the pleasure of being in theatrical shows with Kristin as well her graduating class. I will always remember seeing her in my first live production of Sound of Music...so magical! Watching her story on Facebook and seeing her faith in Jesus gives me so much joy that she is dancing with her Savior today! I pray many will find their salvation in Christ alone through her amazing testimony❤️

“ *I am so very sorry for your loss Mr and Mrs Hollingsworth. I went to school with Kristin and I could always remember her sweet smile and love for people. Her smile could light up a room. “ Kristin was a wonderful work colleague. We had great times at work and even traveled a few times together. One conference we attended happened to be at The Naples Beach Resort. The day we arrived was a free beach day. Her gma came up from where she lived in FL and hung with us on the beach all day. That evening a quick storm came in and Kristin and I took a long walk on the beach afterwards.

We had never seen so many Star fish washed up on the beach. We laughed at ourselves as we threw as many as we could back into the ocean. We were of course “Saving Lives”. I still remember her smile and that laughter that night. That was a great trip.

“ We have known Matt for over 20 years as we watched him grow up next door to us. When Matt met Kristin we could quickly see she was the one for him. We attended their wedding and it was a wonderful celebration of love and commitment. They made an awesome couple and we have enjoyed their company on many occasions as they would often visit us when they would come home to MN. Kristin inspired us with her faith and fight over the last 2 1/2 years. She was a beautiful person and her smile always light up the room. She will be dearly missed. Matt has inspired us with his continued love and commitment in caring for Kristin. He has certainly lived out his marriage vow. May God bless him and comfort him always. May all those who love Kristin have peace knowing she is with the Lord.

With Love,

“ I was so sorry to hear about the passing of Kristin. I had the pleasure to be her physician for the past 16 months. She surely had a kind and beautiful sole. She never complained and always had that wonderful smile. She was certainly blessed by the care that she received from her family. She will certainly be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are for her family. It is comforting to know that she is in a much more beautiful place.

“ I am so sorry to hear this. I took care of Kristin a few times in the IPC at St Vincent. She was amazing, such a happy soul and so full of hope. Her faith in Jesus shined through her in spite of all she was going through. Praying for peace and comfort for all her family and friends.
