“ Have known Larry all my life. Grew up in the church with Larry and his family. He was my Sunday school teacher when I was a young boy. Taught me the way of life that led me to be a repentant believer in the Lord. Love and prayers to all the family from John and Janet Duff. Rest in peace my friend !

“ Larry was such a giving person, traveling with us to nursing homes even while he was using a wheelchair. He loved to share stories and poems and fiddle songs. Aaron and I missed him when we went today and will miss him in the future. But Larry is in a splendid place and away from bothersome earthly details, praise God!
