“ Larry was a senior when I played varsity baseball as a freshman. He always treated people with kindness and respect. I will always remember his smile and the unique way he said things. The world is out a good person. God rest your soul my friend.

“ Larry my first memory of you was losing 250 in 4 tickets..... and you being mad cause I played my hand wrong. You always tried to teach me after that, you were more than a poker friend. You were a FRIEND and I do not have a lot of them.... Thank you for being you. I will miss you..... sincerely Ronnie Greengo.....rest in peace brother!!!!

Ronnie Greengo you were someone Larry loved because I loved you and Maddie. He quickly grew to love you both because he knew you were a true friend. He loved playing with 4 tickets (Omaha) but he mostly liked telling us to play better. Thank you for being our friend. We will all miss him.

“ I did not have the honor of meeting this amazing man who won the heart of the most amazing woman I know. I believe his soul is destined for greatness. I could not be think of a better person to send you to your destiny than Jennifer. I've followed your struggles, and wish you peace with comfort. I never met you, but feel your friendship. Too beautiful for this planet. Never to be forgotten. I'm honored to be witness of your journey.

I fortunately was Blessed to know “Mr. Williams” as I liked to refer to him. To say he was Good-hearted would be an understatement. My connection with Larry is poker-based and I “Feel Lucky” to have known him beyond the game. Never met his daughter but know he was so proud and loved her more than anything. Heard about her so much. Same for Jenn. Taking a cheap cliché from a movie but an appropriate “She completed him”. Sorry Jenn, you can make me pay later. Will miss Mr. Williams dearly yet feel grateful I had time spent with him here on Earth. Will see him again! He is and was a Good Man (period). Not that I didn’t cuss him a time or two when he put cards in the air 😊!
Gonna miss you Mr. Williams...RIP.

I played with Larry on our bicycles as a kid we had a lot of fun we did a lot of let's say ornery things sometimes getting caught and getting into trouble then his Uncle Dave married my mom and they were married 17 years so I still consider myself his cousin he spent a year in a hospital bed when he was hit by a car on his bicycle and I used to go over and sit with him just to give him company Ruthie loved it but he was my buddy and he was my family you always take it for granted that they're going to be here forever and I kept wanting to get down see him and I just never took the time I will see him again someday I love you buddy rest in peace

Larry was a good dud! We were friends fought in poker!! But he was a close friend who I knew well. He met his perfect match when he met Jenn!! She was his Jenn! I think they were perfect together. I loved them both as My friends. I love it when I can see friends so in love. I rooted them for the love they found. I was happy for them. Rest in peace my friend. God bless you and god please take care of Jenn and Katie and god listens to prayers. Bless you both.
