“ So Long Dear Friend.

Lee and I were Life Long Buddies, from about 1952, where we met at Lebanon Jr. High. Our first wives, Linda Broshar, Virginia Stowers and I, were Classmates in the LHS Class of 57. So, it was a Natural Fit that our families shared a lot of time together. Ironically, all our male children, Tim, Rick and Rusty shared a common birth date, 26 June. Even before getting our driver's licenses, Lee and I "terrorized" Lebanon on our bicycles, Servi-Cycles, and Wizard Motor Bikes. Once Driving, our horizons spread to Indy, Brownsburg, and other Destinations. Caddying at Ulen and playing golf on "Caddy's Day Monday" were always looked forward to. Not surprisingly, Lee had a natural flow, slow and methodical swing that allowed him to be a low handicapper throughout his golfing days. I was always in awe of his ability, and scores, on a golf course. The memories are many and great, and I shall cherish them until we meet again and "tee it up" in Heaven. I speak for both my wife Jeanie and I, in a final moment, to share our deepest sympathies to Joyce, Bob, Tim, Step Children, Grand Children, Great Grand Children, Nieces, Nephews, and other dear friends upon our loss. May God Bless you all. We know you loved him as much as we. Stay Healthy and Safe.

I am so sorry to hear of Lee's passing. I remember him as a man of few words, but he would always have conversations with me. I rented an apartment from him for many years. He even rented to me without me ever meeting him, somewhat unusual. He knew my mother, JoAn Reynolds & also knew I had stayed in my last apartment for many years. He had good instincts to know a good tenant. That meant so much to me as I rented from him as a new single parent oh so many years ago. Joyce, I'm so sorry for your loss. I always enjoyed taking to both of you. You both always presented as a loving couple. My thoughts are with you during this time of sadness. Denise Reynolds

*I will always remember playing golf with Lee, Kent, and Jack at Ulen. Lee was always the best golfer I was honored to play with and always had that easy-going attitude
God bless you and your family*
