

Lisa Garoffolo

May 28, 1955 - October 8, 2022

Lisa C. Garoffolo, 67, of Lebanon, passed away peacefully Saturday October 8, 2022, at The Restoracy of Whitestown. She was born May 28, 1955, in South Bend, Indiana, to the late Richard G. Brown and Betty (Cooper) Brown Chaney.

On January 17, 1975, she was united in marriage to Tom D. Garoffolo at the First Presbyterian Church in Lebanon. He survives.

Lisa was a 1973 graduate of Lebanon High School and a graduate of Indiana Business College. She held several office and management positions before serving as a Boone County Deputy Clerk in 1991 and elected in November of 1998 to serve the first of 2 terms as the Boone County Clerk. She also was Boone County Assessor for four terms. Lisa was in her 32nd year of service to the citizens of Boone County when, in February of 2022, health issues prompted her early retirement. Through her lobbying efforts at the state level, Lisa effected positive changes in legislation.

Her memberships included, Boone County Republican Women, National Federation of Republican Women, Ulen Country Club and Centenary United Methodist Church.

She loved her family and cherished Christmases together. Her granddaughter was her pride and joy and loved sharing in all of her activities. She enjoyed talking conservative politics, frequenting casinos to play the slot machines, and listening to classic rock music. When the 1973 class reunions were held, Lisa was a big part of the planning process and enjoyed when they all reconnected and reminisced. Caribbean cruises with family and friends were a time of great fun and relaxation. Lisa was known for making baby blankets for many expecting families.

Survivors include her husband, Tom Garoffolo of Lebanon; daughter, Emily Webb and husband, Matt McCown of Avon; granddaughter, Riley Webb of Avon; brother, Mark (A.J.) Brown of Raleigh, North Carolina; sister, Bonnie (Chip) Spelman of Cicero, brothers-in-law, Keith Stephenson of Columbus, Gary Garoffolo of Tulsa, Oklahoma and Andrew (Leslie) Boggs of Coeur D'Alene, Idaho; stepfather, Don Chaney of Fort Myers, Florida; and many nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, Lisa was preceded in death by a sister, Janet Stephenson; niece, Katie Brown; nephew, Matthew Stephenson; and her beloved four-legged companion, Peaches Marie.

Funeral Services are planned for 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 13, 2022, at Myers Mortuary, 1502 North Lebanon Street, in Lebanon, Indiana, with Rev. Anthony Stone, officiating. Visitation will be held from 10:00 a.m. until the time of services at the funeral home. Entombment will follow services at Oak Hill Cemetery.

Memorials may be directed in Lisa's memory to the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation at www.jdrf.org/donate or to the charity of the donor's choice.

“ I regret and I'm saddened by the passing of Lisa. The relationship that she and my brother Tom had was truly a love story, that simply deepened over the years. Her dedication to her family the citizens of Boone County was exemplary. She will be missed by all of her friends and family but particularly my brother and her husband Tom. May she rest in eternal peace.

“ I want to express my sincere sympathy to all of Lisa’s family. My memories of Lisa go way back to our early childhood. Her family lived two doors down from us in Northfield. She and my sister, Joyce were the same age and Janet and I were the same age. Memories of tag and playing Barbie dolls...and many many more. Most of what I knew of Lisa as an adult came from my brother, Frank Starkey, who was a local attorney. They were great “courthouse “ friends.
I pray that God comfort you and bring you peace in your grief. Eternal rest grant unto Lisa and the souls of all the faithfully departed, and let perpetual light shine upon them, may their souls through the mercy of God Rest In Peace. Amen.
