“ I will always remember dear Lloyd as a man of great integrity, and one who loved and served his Lord with his whole heart. Lloyd was a quiet, intelligent human being who fought his physical battles bravely with strength and perseverance. To God be the glory for the legacy of faith and love he has left behind. I heard the song, We Shall Behold Him, face to face in all His glory’. Sweet Lloyd, you are now in your eternal home and beholding Gods glory, free of pain at last. You are also reunited with your precious son Matthew & all the other loved ones who have gone before you. To God be the Glory.

“ So sorry for your loss Audrey, Aaron and Emma. I will add my condolence to the many you have already received. In recent years Lloyd and I had some difficulty communicating - my hearing has not been good. But I think of happier days when we played chess and skied together. He had a wonderful sense of humor and a genuine concern for others. I'm sure you and many others benefited from his wise council on life in general, and also his close relationship with the Lord. He will be remembered and missed.
