“ I'm so sad for the family. We have fond memories of our day visit to Marco Island to see Luther and Jackie a few years ago. He was a high school buddy of mine. Dick and Kay Bott

“ Another friend lost. I worked closely with Luther, Jim Duke, and Dick Richardson for several years at Allison Division, and after our mutual retirements we kept up these relationships along with our wives. It was not always convenient, what with the Hays living in Florida and Duke spending summers in Wisconsin, but generally we fashioned some sort of lunch at Christmastime to re-enforce these memories. Luther was always a driving force, the 'hail fellow well met' type who managed to inject enthusiasm in the gatherings. But then, this was Luther's style. A good friend to us and many more. A life well lived, a memory to be cherished. Dick Gibson

“ My sympathy to the family of Luther Marr. My parents, Harold and Iris Tremps, were good friends of his parents. I remember with fondness good times shared when we were children.
