“ Margaret, I hope this day blessed you. What a legacy! And, didn't Andrew and Rod give such a beautiful service. And ALL the stories! So funny and precious! It still holds true what many of us gals at church say, "When we grow up, we want to be Margaret.”

“ I love you are the words I would hear from cousin Margaret at the end of every call we had with each other. She was a wonderful woman and loved her family very much. We spoke about all kinds of things on those calls however the majority of the calls were always about family and the family get togethers we had together. Sometimes she would call me by my father's name which was Ralph Richard Lopossa and I feel so honored as I know they are both rejoicing being in Heaven. I love you Margaret and I will see you again!

“ So many memories of Margaret at Mechanicsburg Christian Church but the one that stands out most is the way she made you feel. Around her you thought you were her favorite kid/person/couple. And somehow it worked with everyone. She had such a long giving loving life and we are all thankful to have known her.

“ I am so deeply sorry for your loss. I had just went out to the churches Halloween party and asked about Margaret. I still remember Margaret giving me candy at church from like four years old until I was an adult. She was one of my favorite people I would always make sure I said hi to her and give her a hug. I will always cherish those memories with her at church.
