

Marguerite Williamson

September 2, 1927 - August 30, 2022

Marguerite “Marg” Williamson, 94, passed away Tuesday, August 30, 2022, at Witham Memorial Hospital in Lebanon, Indiana. She was born in Advance, Indiana on September 2, 1927, the second oldest daughter of the late Earl Ralph and Ester Adelthea (Morrison) Reese. She had married Gene Williamson and later divorced.

Marg was a 1945 graduate of Lebanon High School and had attended Indiana Central Business College. From 1962 – 1977 she worked as the switchboard operator for Stewart Warner in Lebanon. She then served as receptionist for Boone County State Bank in Lebanon until her retirement in 1994. During retirement, Marg enjoyed volunteering for Meals on Wheels.

She was a member of Lebanon Christian Church and a founding member of the Kappa Delta Phi Sorority in Lebanon. She enjoyed family gatherings and family traditions.

Survivors include her daughter, Karla J. (Wally) Venis of Lebanon; grandson, Kyle Venis of Downers Grove, Illinois; three great grandchildren, Brenden, Kate, and Emily; sister, Bonnie B. Dawson of Lebanon; and nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, Marguerite was preceded in death by three sisters,

Lanora Lee, Dolores, and Alice.

Graveside Services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, September 2, 2022, at Old Union Cemetery, rural Jamestown, Indiana. Myers Mortuary in Lebanon has been entrusted with her burial arrangements.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to Boone County Senior Services, 515 CrownPointe Drive, Lebanon, Indiana 46052.

“ Karla,

Sorry to hear of your loss, I remember your Mom working at the bank and she was always nice to me when I would go in there. Prayers for your family during this difficult time.
