“ I met Marilyn Irwin when I became Melanie's next door neighbor in Lexington. She was a delightful lady and always enjoyable to be around. It was always a great pleasure to sit and talk with Marilyn. While it has been several years since Marilyn was able to make the trip to Lexington, I did have honor of knowing her. Blessings and prayers to the family.

“ What a beautiful woman and a lovely spirit. During my high school years, Marilyn and Pete were like my second parents. If I wasn't at my home, I was with Melanie at her house. My memories of Marilyn are all so full of love, laughter and fun. She was amazing - she will be missed by so many - especially her loving family. Prayers to everyone at this difficult time.
