“ Marilyn has always been like a second mom to me. We bonded a close friendship and that never changed. I had the honor to spend the night with her in the hospital where I watched her and prayed for her. The next day she was so mad at everybody and kept telling me to take her home NOW. Her face lit up when I walked in the room, her brother jack noticed and made a comment about how big she smiled. Marilyn my dear you are not in anymore pain nor are u suffering either. May god greatly bless you and may you Rest In Peace my friend. You will forever b in my heart and on my mind. I love you mamma
