“ Sissy, I remember so many of our times just getting together and visiting as adults. I was thinking about something, just a precious memory. When we were young, you would draw our paper dolls clothes and the younger kids would color and we would cut them out. You were an inspiration to my Life. Such a beautiful soul. I'm so grateful for the time we spent together. I thought we had more good times ahead but God had his plan. Sissy he needed a very special Angel and that's why he chose you. Even though I never wanted to lose you, God needed you more. I will always love you. I know you are in Heaven. Please tell Karen, Uncle Bill, Dustin, Bill Z., John, Mike and Josh we love and miss them all. We'll be to join you all in that glorious day when we all meet again. I'll never forget the wonderful times we had together. Missing you ❤️ Love, Cindy

“ Margie was a very unique person. She was very loving, caring and the most giving person I've ever met. I told her that about a week before she passed. Sissy I miss you so much and I love you very much. We had so many plans together but Jesus needed another Angel and with you he got the best of the best. Thank you Sissy for all the unforgettable memories you gave me and the kindness you showed me after losing my family. I know your light will be shining bright. I will never forget what we shared together. ❤️🥰
