“ My father Julian Gordon and Marjorie were first cousin (Duncan family) & although he was several years her elder I remember stories he and my mom told of having Marjorie visit them after they married before they began their family. My parents were quit fond of Marjorie.

“ Fond carefree childhood memories of Marjorie, her brothers, sisters and cousins. Marjorie being the youngest. Knew my cousin better in the later years sharing numerous phone conversation. Will miss the fight, her laugh and the joy of just hearing her voice.

“ And while it's "expected"....death seems to take us unaware.

Marjorie Lasley Sipe has long been one of the most lovely ladies I've ever known.

A gentle person who set a loving example for many. She found the good in all of us.

I feel blessed to have known her.

May she rest in peace.
