“ Mark, Was a close friend of mine. Growing up in Whitestown. We ran around together in his Dad's old Ford truck. He was my Best Man in my wedding September 26 th 1981. He came back from the Army in Korea. He got home just in time for the wedding. He wore his Army uniform in the wedding. His Dad Lee. Let us use his Red 66 Charger to leave the wedding to the reception. He stayed at my apartment the night before the wedding. We stayed out all night drinking. To celebrate his coming home. I knew Mark's Grandpa too. I just found out about his passing. Today August 28th 2025. I lost track of Mark after the wedding. Thought I would look him up. Just about to celebrate my 44th wedding adversary his September 26 2025. I am shattered over this treble news. He will be greatly missed! Shawn P. Beck.

“ Mark was a neighbor of mine in rural Whitestown. He was the fastest kid to get to the end of the long drive to get on the bus. Many years of watching him farm, 4h with his family. RIP
