“ We share such beautiful memories together, from the times on Main Street, when I babysat with the kids and then with your move next door to our family on Pearl Street, where we shared so many wonderful memories growing up together.

One of my favorite memories is our dad's cooking chicken on the big drums on Sundays, telling jokes and sharing fishing stories.

These times I will always hold dear in my heart. Our deepest sympathy and love to all of you on the loss of your beautiful mother, Tammy, Gale, Doug and your families.

Love and blessings, Charlotte and Rex
