“ Mary Sue was not only loved and deeply revered, she was highly respected. I will miss her deeply. I pray that her family find peace and that the pleasant memories soon fill the hole her passing has created.

She was an advisor, confidant and friend and I thank God for the gift of Mary Sue in my life.

“ I will never forget spending the night with Vickie and Mary Sue walked in wearing her robe with curlers in her hair. For some reason, I found that very funny and I laughed so hard that I spit out the crackers I was eating. She looked at me like I was crazy. I also remember hearing her voice calling for Vickie in the neighborhood when it was time to come home.
