“ *When we first moved to Richmond, we lived in the same building as Macky, Shirley & their Mother. Shirley do you remember when all of us kids would get bananas out of the dumpster at the old Kroger building on 4th street, take them to the old school down the street and eat them. We also played on the tanks at the court house. Macky would get tickled at something and pee her pants. So glad you guys came over to Dannelle's a few years ago and we were able to visit with both of you. Love & Prayers.....Macky is not sick any more. she is dancing in heaven with your Mother. “ Macky, as we called her was always laughing. We had such good times remembering the days when we first met and things that happened over the years. She will be missed but not forgotten. Rest in peace sweet Macky.
