“ I will miss Meridith. I have known her for many years. I loved seeing her at the Sloan/Bogardus home during holidays and for a friendly game of Dominoes. I learned a lot by watching her as the master of the game, (except when Jim was playing and then he was the master). I also loved she could go watch the boys perform their events even when she was not feeling so well. Jami, Stacey, Eli, and Brynner, she loved you with all her heart and I am sorry for your loss.

“ I am so sorry to hear this. Meredith was a sweet, kind lady. I did not know her real well but she and Jim purchased our house in Morningside when my husband passed away in 2009. I loved that house and was so happy that someone I knew was going to be making memories in it. My prayers go out to Meredith's family. I have lost both of my parents and my spouse and I know what it does to you. God will get you through. Stay strong.

“ One of my favorite “traditions” growing up that my mom and dad engrained in Sydney and I was that no matter how big or small the occasion, you didn’t leave until you gave Grandma and Grandpa a hug and let them know you loved them. If anything, it served as a reminder that they were there, exemplifying unconditional love and support. No matter how sweaty, happy, or sad – they’d be there to cap things off with positive feedback and maybe a few constructive thoughts as well ;-). I knew it, my friends knew it, heck – I think the community knew it.

When I think back to my time with Grandma, I am filled with countless memories. Getting together and racing remote controlled cars on Memorial Day, running around Lebanon for the 4th of July, the various different events they traveled hundred of miles for, garage sales, birthday celebrations, my favorite Turkey Roll with a Yoo-hoo :-), Halloweens, sneaking around the Christmas Tree, opening up big envelopes full of cash as gifts, football nights, baseball days, and much more – but it will always be the feeling of support that takes the cake.

I am very grateful for a supportive family that was highlighted by amazing grandparents. May you forever rest in peace and know that I will continue to strive to be the best version of myself in large part to the example you set. Love you Grandma. - Zack
