“ The raindrops fell ever so softly from the sky on the day after you had died A symbol of all our falling tears remembrance of precious memories shared throughout the years None of us ever ready to see you go hearts heavy with pain as we all unfortunately know The loss so heavy no words can really explain it was your time for god to reclaim

Our minds wondering aimlessly, moods so desperately blue how would we get passed the heartache and missing you A mother to many and such a dear friend always there with a helping hand or kind word to lend

And then the strangest thing happened before my eyes the clouds began to dissipate to my surprise Then the sun started to glow ever so brightly, as the clos gave way and a beautiful rainbow appeared on display It felt as if you were smiling down with all your love for the ones you left from above The love and memories of you will always remain but our lives will unfortunately never be the same posted and written by DS with all our sympathy love you guys Doug, Darzell and Gwen
