Miriam Coleman (Sullivan), age 91, passed away suddenly on February 14th, 2019 in San Angelo, Texas. Miriam was born April 27, 1927 in Lebanon, IN.

Early in her career she worked for Edgar Whitcomb at the Indiana Secretary of State's office. She moved her family to Texas in 1968 and then worked for JC Penny's. She retired from JC Penny's after 25 years of faithful service. Her work ethic and knowledge of accounting earned her many positions, to include management. After retirement she painted, crocheted, knitted, and sewed all types of crafts. Her talents allowed her to open her own business and she had a lot of fun creating and sharing.
