“ The last time I saw you, I was a little down, then you grabbed your guitar and sang out of tune so bad I was laughing in a couple notes, the random late night weird texts, the off the wall conversations for at least until the vodka was gone!! See you in the next life brother!!

“ Mitchell, babe I have soooo many wonderful memories of us ...like our trip to Chicago and seeing the frist snow fall of the season while we were there from our roof top room...it was such a romantic weekend trip...you playing the guitar and singing the song "ANGIE" by the rolling stones to me all the time, us laying in bed jamming out to music for hours at a time, you always loved to tell me all kinds of different things about each band ...and what the song meant to you or if you've seen them in concert..😊. I will never forget all the support advice and love you gave me when I felt completely broken ...you showed me what it felt like to finally know how love was suppose to feel ...you made me feel special everyday, you always told me it's the little things that matter the most...and it is I'm going to miss you kissing me on the forehead ...making me smile till you saw my dimples showed...telling me I'm beautiful...all these are memories I will cherish and keep close to my heart always....I love you Mitchell Ryan Stevens...fly high 🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰💕💕

Mitchel my friend. I will think about you often brother. It was wild being your roommate for those several months and I enjoyed those short times we had together cooking, talking, raising a little hell and jamming on guitar. It was very sudden my friend and you will always have an impression on me dude. Till next time.
