

Myrtle L. Bailey

March 24, 1929 - April 17, 2016

Mrs. Myrtle L. Bailey, 87, passed away at home surrounded by her family on Sunday, April 17, 2016. She was born in Vermillion County, Illinois, on March 24, 1929 a daughter of the late Thomas Jeff Philbeck and Luanie (Hale) Philbeck.

Myrtle was raised and educated in Illinois, where she graduated from the Saint Joseph Illinois School System in 1944.

On December 15, 1972, in Lafayette, Indiana, she was married to Richard G. Bailey. Richard passed away on December 18, 2012.

For twenty-five years, she and her husband operated the concession stand for Summerville Acton and Douglas Auctioneers. For the past three decades she was the chairperson for The Boone County Toy Drive.

A devoted wife, mother, and grandmother, to three generations, Myrtle loved her family. She enjoyed collecting antique dolls and spending time with her grandchildren and family.

My Aunt Myrtle...we were as close as an aunt and niece could be..you were my daughter...Heather Millers..God mother.. You were by my side for several of my surgeries..giving me sound advice for my concession stand. Open and honest when my ADD was in fast forward..I cherish every moment..I will love you untill the ocean has no sound!! With tears I say..always rest in peace ..

“ I will miss my beautiful Aunt Myrtle. When mom, her sister Lela, passed away in 2008, Aunt Myrtle became my mom and I will always love her for that. No child went without at Christmas and what she did not get in donations, came out of her pocket. She will be greatly awarded for all her work here on earth. Love you Aunt Myrtle.
