Golden Turpin was born in Fountain County, Indiana, on September 20, 1941. She was the daughter of the late Ronald Lee and Margaret Opal (Foxworthy) Jackson. She was married in Lebanon, Indiana, on April 4, 2004, to Walter Johnson "Walt" Turpin. Mr. Turpin survives. Previously she had been the wife of Eldon Rex Larew, Lloyd Carroll Holladay and Ernest Ray Golden. Reared and educated in Fountain County, she graduated from Waynetown High School. Her early married years were spent in New Market prior to moving to Crawfordsville, She had also resided in Darlington and Lizton prior to moving to Lebanon in 1979. While in Crawfordsville, she was a factory worker, an employee of the Journal Review, and then operated her own restaurant for a few years. In Lebanon, she operated The Lower Level in the basement of the Knotty Pine and later moved it to her home and called her business Country Collectibles. For a couple of years she had a store on the Lebanon square called Home Sweet Home and then again moved her business to her home on North Lebanon Street concentrating on herbs and vitamins. She was active until the time of her recent illness. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. Mrs. Turpin enjoyed her family and their activities. In addition to being an avid Indiana Pacer fan, Nancy liked to read, sew, paint, woodwork and flower arranging. Memberships: Providence Christian Church
