“ Brenda,

I send you and your family my condolences and prayers. I remember many happy times at your house as a child. Your mother always made me feel very welcome. We enjoyed having your family in the neighborhood.

“ The following were the hymns from Nina's service:

How Great Thou Art

*Oh Lord my God
When I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds
Thy hands have made
I see the stars
I hear the rolling thunder
Thy power throughout
The universe displayed*

*Then sings my soul
My Savior, God, to Thee
How great thou art
How great thou art
Then sings my soul
My Savior, God, to Thee
How great Thou art
How great Thou art*

*When Christ shall come
With shout of acclamation
And take me home
What joy shall fill my heart
Then I shall bow
In humble adoration
And then proclaim My God
How great Thou art*

*Then sings my soul
My Savior, God, to Thee
How great Thou art
How great Thou art
Then sings my soul*

*My Savior, God, to Thee
How great Thou art
How great Thou art
How great Thou art
How great Thou art*

Amazing Grace

*Amazing grace! How sweet the sound^[L] that saved a wretch like^[L]
me^[SEP]! once was lost, but now am found^[SEP]; was blind, but now I see.*

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear^[L] and grace my fears^[SEP] relieved^[SEP] how precious did that grace appear^[SEP] the hour I first believed.

When we've been there ten thousand years^[L] bright shining as the^[L] sun^[SEP] we've no less days to sing God's praise^[SEP] than when we first began.

*Amazing grace! How sweet the sound^[L] that saved a wretch like^[L]
me^[SEP]! once was lost, but now am found^[SEP]; was blind, but now I see.*

On Eagle's Wings

*You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord,
Who abide in His shadow for life,
Say to the Lord, "My Refuge,
My Rock in Whom I trust."*

Refrain:

*And He will raise you up on eagle's wings,
Bear you on the breath of dawn,
Make you to shine like the sun,
And hold you in the palm of His Hand.*

*The snare of the fowler will never capture you,
And famine will bring you no fear;
Under His Wings your refuge,
His faithfulness your shield.*

Refrain

*You need not fear the terror of the night,
Nor the arrow that flies by day,
Though thousands fall about you,
Near you it shall not come.*

Refrain

*For to His angels He's given a command,
To guard you in all of your ways,
Upon their hands they will bear you up,
Lest you dash your foot against a stone.*

Refrain

All Things Bright And Beautiful

*Refrain: All things bright and beautiful,^[L]^[SEP]All creatures great and small,^[L]^[SEP]All things wise and wonderful,^[L]^[SEP]The Lord God made them
all. ^[L]^[SEP]^[L]^[SEP]Each little flower that opens,^[L]^[SEP]Each little bird that sings,^[L]^[SEP]
He made their glowing colours,^[L]^[SEP]He made their tiny wings. ^[L]^[SEP]^[L]^[SEP]*

Refrain

The purple-headed mountain, The river running by,^[L]^[SEP]The sunset and the morning,^[L]^[SEP]That brightens up the sky,^[L]^[SEP]^[L]^[SEP]The cold wind in the winter,^[L]^[SEP]The pleasant summer sun,^[L]^[SEP]The ripe fruits in the garden,^[L]^[SEP]He made them every one; Refrain

*He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,*

Who has made all things well. Refrain

“ Allison read the following passage at the family service:

*Because God loves us with a Never Stopping,
Never Giving Up, Unbreaking,
Always and Forever Love -
Heaven is breaking through!
He is sending us a Light from Heaven
To shine on us like the sun
To shine on those who live in darkness
And in the shadow of death
To guide our feet into the way of peace.

“ Nina's great-granddaughters shared a song at the family service.
Lauren played Ode to Joy on the viola while her cousins sang.

*Joyful, joyful, we adore thee,
God of glory, Lord of love;*

*hearts unfold like flowers before thee,
opening to the sun above.*

*Melt the clouds of sin and sadness;
drive the dark of doubt away.*

Giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day!

“ Brenda, the first time I met your parents they had come to visit you at IU's Read Hall with a box of chocolates. I think one or both of them worked at an Indiana candy company. (Of course, I would remember the chocolates.) Indeed, life is like a box of chocolates and you never know what you're going to get. But from that first meeting, I also remember seeing the love your parents had for you. All you need is love. But a little chocolate now and then doesn't hurt. My thoughts are with you and your family as you remember your mom. Her life, her box of chocolates, was full of sweetness because all of you were in it.

“ Nina was an all-time gem, and will be missed by all who were fortunate enough to know her. I'll always remember her very matter-of-fact way of thinking and saying things. It wasn't hard to understand where she stood on something.

Early on as I was dating and then marrying into the McIntire family, I sometimes felt like she was keeping an eye on me or regarded me a bit suspiciously. Now with two daughters of my own (Nina's great-granddaughters, one of which shares her middle name), I understand this much better. She was wise.

When I think of the wonderful Curts, McIntire, Nolan and Mallov girls/women that Nina led into this world, I can't think of a better legacy. I am lucky to be a part of it and so happy to have known her.

Cheers to a life well-lived!

“ For 12 years after my Dad passed, my Mom would want to go to Florida in the winter as they had in the past. Most of those years I would drive her down, stay a few days then fly home and reverse the trip in the spring. I usually got some books on tape at the library for us to listen to , We ate out every meal which we both loved, shopped some along the way, stayed 2 nights in a motel and settled her in to their Clearwater apartment. I sat by the pool, we walked to visit her friends in the complex , then I would fly home!
Reflecting on those trips, there were so many laughs, sharing of feelings and thoughts!
But as life does, It got to be sort of a hard ordeal , that I was only a little sad when she decided she wouldn't go anymore...
Would sure love to have one of those early trips with her again❤️
Miss my healthy happy Mother but Prayers 🙏 of thankfulness that she is at peace 🙏
