“ Pam was a very dear friend. She was talented, creative, hard working and very funny. We became close friends at Blue Cross, where she was the Corporate Artist. She studied and graduated from Herron Art School in Indianapolis. She wrote and illustrated several books for children featuring her 16-year-old tuxedo cat, Bootsie. Pam loved photography and cats, critters of all kinds. Near her home last fall, through the winter and spring, we every day followed the behavior of a litter of red foxes and the casual trotting that a coyote made across the backyard of her home. Eagles, hawks, rabbits, all were her friends. No one can replace her. She and I kept the phone company in business as we coped with the Covid lockdown in our states. She got me through it. I don't know what I'll do without her. If she was your friend you were blessed.

Pam and I were best buddies through out grade school. She and I were only children. I went to IU and she went to John Herron. We connected over the last 2 years. We both loved kids books. She wrote several. I am working on one and she encouraged me. Allyson Cave .
