“ I just read on Facebook that Pam passed away last May. My heart is broken. I was fortunate enough to be her escort at the 1969 Westfield High School Prom. The next day we went to Turkey Run State Park and had the best of times with classmates there. My sincere condolences to the family although I am a little late. She will always be a big part of my youth and the memories of her smile will always be with me. R.I.P. Pam. God Speed.

“ I hope you are at peace, with no pain, physically or mentally. You and me.. at a time, where you were, I was! I was going to live with you forever. I thought if you ever died I would too because I couldn't live without you. Well, I still can't. I have missed you terribly. I've needed you so bad. Life happened, and choices were made. I still love you Mommy. I'll be there soon to see you and I hope you will love me there as much as I love you.
