

Patricia Ann Hardy

July 25, 1946 - December 20, 2025

Patricia Ann (Jackson) Hardy, 79, died peacefully in her sleep on December 20, 2025, in Plainfield, Indiana, with her husband, Randy Hardy, at her side.

Daughter of Beatrice Miller and Paul Jackson, she was born in Chattanooga, Tennessee and later raised in Lebanon, Indiana, attending Lebanon High School where she was a cheerleader.

She and her first husband, Donald “Bob” Hulse, raised five sons in and around Central Indiana. She later became a qualified medicine aide and worked at several nursing homes before retiring as the Store Manager of the 76 Travel Plaza in Whitestown.

Early in her life, she loved singing and was part of the church choir at the First Baptist Church in Lebanon. For many years, she was an accomplished bowler, competing at the Indiana state tournament level. As her kids grew up, she served as scout leader, baseball mom, and shuttled the boys back and forth from their various activities. She was a supporter of the Indianapolis Colts and a country music fan but her biggest passion was embracing her Native American heritage.

She is preceded in death by her parents, first husband and three brothers, Jim Jarvis, Bob Jarvis and Jack Jackson Sr.

She is survived by her sons, Robert (Holly) Hulse of Atlanta, Georgia, Randy Hulse of Indianapolis, Rick (Kim) Hulse of Tucson, Arizona, Ron (Sherri) Hulse of Danville, Indiana, and Roger Hulse of Tucson, Arizona; brother Mike Jackson of Lebanon; 12 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

Cremation has been entrusted to the Myers Mortuary in Lebanon, Indiana. A private gathering will be held Tuesday, December 30, 2025. A livestream of the service will be aired on Myers Mortuary's Facebook page at 7:00 p.m. that day.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the Humane Society of Boone County, Indiana or the National Museum of the American Indian in Washington, D.C.

“ Pat will always have a special place in my heart. At some point and time she had dated my brother Chuck gibbs and we became very close. Over the years we had lost contact but through social media we were able to reconnect. I am so so sorry for your loss to all family members. May she rest in peace

“ I'm so sorry for your loss! Pat was a great woman and friend. I didn't realize she was back in Indiana. Or I would have set up a time to see her. Regretfully, Joyce Richardson

Joyce Richardson - December 24, 2025 at 10:15 AM

So sorry for your loss Randy, prayers to you and the family in this time of grief and healing. Mike and Luann

Mike Steigerwald - December 25, 2025 at 10:12 AM

Joyce - she had not been back in Indiana very long and entered hospice shortly after that and honestly didn't have a lot of energy for visits. Thank you for sharing your words!

Robert Hulse - December 26, 2025 at 12:31 PM

*Pat was a fellow '64 LHS classmate. She will be missed not only by family but friends.
Sorry for the family's loss.
