

Patricia Park Walters

March 17, 2014

Patricia Jean Routh Park Walters died Sunday, March 16, 2014. She spent her childhood in Lebanon. She received her nurses training at Ball Memorial Hospital and became a nurse cadet during WWII. After the war, she married Sgt. Robert C. Walters and worked as a nurse at Witham Memorial Hospital in Lebanon. With a growing family, Pat retired from nursing and became an expert seamstress and homemaker. Her artistry with a needle produced beautiful dresses accented with embroidery and smocking. When complimented, all five of her daughters said, "Thanks. My mother made it." Pat was also an Air Force wife. While on assignment in the Deep South, her Hoosier green thumb cultivated fragrant red roses. After her daughters were grown she returned to nursing, working at Bossier General Hospital in Bossier City, Louisiana, and later, at Witham Memorial Hospital, back in Indiana. Home in Lebanon, Pat quilted, gardened and enjoyed birthdays and holidays with family. Pat will be greatly missed by her husband, R.C., her daughters, grandchildren, and great grandchild. In addition to her husband, survivors include five daughters, Jeffra Walters and husband, Jon Kosh – Montrose, Colorado, Jayma Walters – Carmel, Indiana, Janeen Newquist and husband, Lee – Fort Worth, Texas, Janelle Bedway and husband, John III – Carmel, Indiana, and Joann Ogle and husband, Jon – Carmel, Indiana; eight grandchildren, Goss Dembitsky, Kara Wren, Stosch Dembitsky, Jordan Ogle, Jessie Ogle, Clinton Newquist, Wyatt Newquist, Adam Bedway; and one great grandson, Shadd Dembitsky. She was preceded in death by a brother, Robert Routh. Memorial Services will be held at Myers Mortuary, 1502 North Lebanon Street, in Lebanon, Indiana on Monday, March 24, 2014 at 11:00 a.m. Visitation is planned for Monday, March 24, 2014 from 10:00 a.m. until the time of the service at the funeral home in Lebanon. Interment will follow at Oak Hill Cemetery in Lebanon. Memorials may be made to the Charity of the Donor's Choice.
