“ Many fond memories of being with Patty, Pam, Johnny, and Penny at their farm. I even loved bailing hay. Being in the “Wolcottville Dudes” and riding horses. I will never forget running in to the barn and running out of one of my boots into the cow manure in winter. I never felt anything so cold in my life. When Aunt Babe cooked they liked to tease me by telling me I was eating “Bessie” or whatever name. They knew I couldn’t eat it if I associated it with a name. I know that every life is not perfect. I only remember the good and they were family. ❤️
