“ It's hard to think of just one memory but I'll return to my favorite one. Christmas with you and grandma had to have been the best way to end the year. You both always thought of everyone else, you always went out of your way. You both were always there. You were the reason every one stayed close and in touch. I miss you both so much. And I love you so much. I will continue to carry you both close to my heart.
