“ Randy worked at Movie Gallery with me. He was one of the most caring, genuine individuals I had ever met. He was also so funny and talented. We had many talks. He was always there if you needed an ear. This photo was one of my favorites. Shrek came to the store (it is my ex-husband Shannon in the suit, he recently passed himself). They had a blast together. They made children smile and laugh. It was memories to last a lifetime. I enjoyed Gallery walks with him and two of my friends there - Nathan and Brandon. I saw his kids when they were much younger as we hung out at the apartment. He was always so alive and full of life. He would do anything for anyone. He helped me through a few problems. I'm so glad he was with the love of his life until he passed. Sylvia, my condolences and love are sent to him and the children... many family members and friends . I send you my prayers and my love, my respect for this man who was a big part of my life for a long time. Goodbye Randy. You will be missed . Pauline
