“ Becky I never knew that pain would feel this bad losing you as my best friend. We were so close that we told each other things that we’ve never told anyone else. You asked me to promise to you that if you passed away before me, that I do a specific thing. I will do everything in my power Beck to keep that promise, I just need some time to figure it out. I love you Beck. Please find my mom and dad and tell them I love them. No more stress Beck, no more stress.
