“ Our deepest sympathy goes out to the Brown family during their time of grief and loss. Bro. Richard was deeply loved by our family and will be greatly missed. His life and ministry left a lasting impression on our family. We look forward to a grand homecoming in heaven one day soon. Hallelujah to the Lamb!!

“ Richard was a brother, father, and friend all in one. Because of Richard's obedience I was led to the Lord. I will never forget the influence he had on my life. I am eternally grateful to Richard for his following the Holy Spirit, and the uncompromising life he led. Richard truly was a man after the heart of God. The last time I saw Richard, although he was sick and weak, he picked up his bible and shared truth with me. Thankful you are in the arms of the Lord, precious man of God. Prayers for the family.
