

Roger Lee Fogle

August 4, 1952 - December 24, 2023

Roger Lee Fogle, 71, slipped peacefully into eternity on Sunday, December 24, 2023, at Witham Memorial Hospital in Lebanon. He was born in Tucson, Arizona, on August 4, 1952, a son of the late John W. Fogle and V. Joyce (Thatcher) Fogle.

On February 10, 1978, he was married to Roxanne E. (Hinkle) Fogle in Lebanon; she survives. Roger is also survived by his daughter, Mandy J. Fogle (Troy Hammons); brother William K. Fogle (Linda Fogle); mother-in-law, Greta Zerasky; and brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law that held a special place in his heart as well as several nieces and nephews.

Roger was a 1970 graduate of Lebanon High School. He was a member of Trinity Chapel in Thorntown. Roger owned "Payless Construction" for 35 years in Lebanon, as well as worked as a warranty officer for Portrait Homes from 2005 to 2008.

Roger was passionate about baseball and softball, playing from pee-wee leagues until he was 63 years old on various co-ed and church leagues. He was on the All-Star team in Lebanon and was drafted to try out for the St. Louis Cardinals in his early years. Roger enjoyed playing pool, he loved animals (especially dogs), he enjoyed watching Christian programs on television, as well as The Three Stooges, Gunsmoke, Andy Griffith, and others. He loved to be silly and make others laugh, even having his own “language”, which many people are familiar with.

Roger was real, he didn't put on heirs for anyone, what you see, is what you get. He was extremely forgiving, non-judgmental of others, he had a huge heart, and would give anyone the shirt off his back. Roger's story is one of redemption. He lived a rascal of a life for many years, got closer to the Lord, and lived out the remainder of his days dedicated to Christ. He thought it was kind of neat that he partied at the Locker Room for many years, then turned around later in life becoming an associate pastor at the church that was once the bar. The Lord performed a Miracle in 2015 when Roger fell 35 feet off a two-story roof, died four times, then lived to tell about it! His loved ones were blessed to spend eight extra years with him, that without the power of prayer, and God's healing touch, they may not have had.

More than anything, Roger loved spending time with his wife, Roxanne, his daughter, Mandy, his brother, Bill, and sister-in-law, Linda. Roger loved his family with his whole heart, they meant EVERYTHING to him.

Funeral Services are planned for 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, January 6, 2024, at Myers Mortuary, 1502 North Lebanon Street, in Lebanon, Indiana, with Tammy Tidd officiating. Visitation will be held from 10:00 a.m. until the time of services. Interment will follow at Oak Hill Cemetery in Lebanon. Trinity Chapel, located at 4534 US-52, Thorntown, will host a dinner for all who would like to attend immediately following interment.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the Humane Society for Boone County P. O. Box 708 Lebanon, Indiana 46052.

Hi dad, today is Monday, March 11th, 2024. I worked all day, went to the Y and Culver's for icecream with Uncle Bill, then spent the rest of the evening with mom. We miss you so very much. It just doesn't seem real. Mom made a pot of chili with your favorite kind of noodles in it :). I love you always and forever dad.

Hey dad, it's May 21st. Starting to gear up for my usual Summer stuff. I went through some of our texts the other day, it's still hard, I can only do a few at a time, but I was in Florida and sending you pics. Thank you for talking to me every day while I was gone...I couldn't not talk to my parents every day while I am away...lol. Uncle Bill and I are still carrying on the Y Monday and Tuesday evening tradition, it helps and I have really enjoyed it. I love you so much dad and miss you every minute of every day.

Hi dad. Missing you so much. This past weekend was Father's Day weekend and it was rough, that's putting it lightly. It's so hard to navigate in this world without you, and still so unbelievable. In 5 days, it will be 6 months that you have been gone from this Earth. I so wish you were here. I love you so very much. I always will.

Hey dad, it's July 11th, 2024.

I missed you so much this July 4th season, especially the family pitch-in. Mom came to the parade, she stood in the exact same spot you both stood in last year, to honor you. I visit your site frequently. I still cannot believe you aren't here. Life is definitely but a vapor. I miss you so much. Gearing up for Florida, it's going to be hard not talking on the phone with you and texting every day that I am gone. You loved me so unconditionally dad, your love is irreplaceable and so pure and true. I miss you so much. I love you with every I am dad.

Hi dad, it's Sunday, September 8th. I miss you now just as much as I did when you left us. Mom made chili, it made me think of you and how much you loved her cooking. Life is so hard without you, I feel like my earthly protection is gone, the one person who loved me unconditionally and selflessly. I miss everything about you. I would've thought this would be easier by now, it isn't. I love you so much dad, with everything I am. I'm not looking forward to the holidays at all. I so wish you were here. So much has happened and I need you.

Hi dad! Today is Monday, November 11th, Veteran's Day. Sandy Devol and family own Key Car Wash here in town and graciously offered to display veteran names on their sign through the holiday. I had her add Poppy's, I know you would think that was kinda neat. Your stone was set exactly 9 years from the day of your accident, weird coincidence. The stone makes you being gone that more real. I love you dad, miss you every day, and can't wait until the day I see you again.

Hi dad, just thinking about you as usual. We are nearing the year mark, 21 more days. I keep hearing the first year without your loved one is the worst, that it gets better after that, I feel like you left yesterday. I love you so much and miss you every second of every day. The holidays are not anywhere near the same without you.

Hi dadboy! It's January 2nd, 2025. Going in to another year without you. I miss you so incredibly much. I think about you all the time. I'm still doing the Y tradition with Uncle Bill, still working all the time, not much has changed since you left other than you're gone. Izzy and Jappy miss you too. I wish you were here for my birthday coming up. I love you forever dad.

Hi dad. Today is Wednesday, January 29th, 2025. A year and a little over a month without you. I miss you so incredibly much. Many people have said after the first year it gets a little easier, I disagree. It is still much the same, life without you is so hard. I love you so much dad. I can't wait until the day I see you again.

Hi dad...sure do miss you! Today we are expecting storms, you know I'm a chicken when it comes to those, but I am trusting God to protect us all. Mom and I have such a hard time here on Earth without you. We love you and miss you so very much...can't really put it in to words. I look forward to seeing you again. A bushel, a peck, and a hug around the neck ❤️.

I met Roger when I was 13 years old at the Boys Club, We became friends from that moment on. Roger had a good sense of humor and was always making me laugh, I will miss Him. I loved him like a brother, We hung out at the park quite a bit, also at his house. His mother always fed us, she made the best tuna fish sandwiches, My life was better for knowing him and I will always be thinking of the good times we shared. I know he is making the angels laugh in heaven. Miss you Friend. Thomas Rooney

Hi dad...sure miss you! I just got back from my very first cruise...went to the Bahamas, pretty neat and educational! You would've enjoyed cruising...tons of people to chat with and grub every where you turn! Good grub! I love traveling, but it sure doesn't matter where I go, you're ALWAYS on my mind. I just wish you were here so much dad. Life without you is not the same. I can't even express my feelings in words. I love you so much, always and forever. If I could rewind time I would in a jack second...

“ Just thinking about you dad, as I do day in and day out. I don't know why I am leaving messages here, I guess I figure the Lord may let you look down and catch a glimpse. I have never known pain like this and I knew when this day came it would break me. I didn't think it would come this soon. I miss you so, so, much. I wish I was with you. I love you dad, with everything I am.

He was a best friend and uncle to my two sons Mike Randall and Josh Anderson, who played softball on his Payless Construction team. He was a leader. Young people seemed to be drawn to him. Every time I sent him a message on his cell phone he always sent a nice message with love back to me. Thank you brother for all the wonderful memories. You are missed and I love you very much ❤️ You're with Jesus now you met your goals on this earth. So wonderful knowing you! Rest in peace my dear brother.*
