“ Ron was a life long mentor and friend. He advised many times during my tenure as a business owner. Ron was one of the first people to join my fitness center when I was getting started in 1984. I'll miss him. Mike Kincaid

“ I knew Ronnie in high school at Martinsville. He was quiet and very smart but we had fun and dated for several months when we were very young. Years later we were watching our sons play little league ball in Lebanon as we both ended up there for awhile and I remember saying "who would ever have thought this would happen in 1956.". Rest in peace - you surely enjoyed life and I know was devote to your family and your community..

“ I always enjoyed times in the pool with the lion statue spouting onto us kids, the Easter egg hunts in the yard and the christmas' in the family room. Rons smile and laugh always lit up the room. It was always fun rooting on the Hoosiers as well while shooting pool in the basement. I love you grandma.
