“ There are too many great memories to share, but suffice it to say, when two brothers (Lloyd & Otis) marry two sisters (Mildred & Dorothy), and they produce eleven (11) cousins between them, there are ALOT of memories and fun to be had by all. Thanks for being who you are (not were) Ronnie. I looked up to you and always cared and loved you as a cousin, man, and friend. God Bless you and your family, and please tell your mom & dad ... and ... my mom & dad ... hello. Till we meet again - Darrell (Burtner)

PS ... Just for fun, even though your are 12 years older than me, one of my memories of you was when you had just moved back to Lebanon from Arizona and you were standing in our living room on Jackson St., wearing a pair of cowboy boots. I think it was the first time I had ever seen a pair and I remember thinking how funny you looked in those pointy things. Now, here I am sitting in Texas wearing a pair. Go figure.
