

Ronnie E Emberton

April 28, 1957 - July 6, 2017

Ronnie E. Emberton, 60, passed away on Thursday, July 6, 2017 at his home in Crawfordsville, Indiana. He was born on April 28, 1957 in Boone County, Indiana the son of the late Eugene Edward and Geneva (Ward) Emberton.

Ronnie graduated from Western Boone High School in 1976. After high school, he began trucking with his father in the family business "Emberton's Trucking". After his father retired, Ronnie started at Frito Lay in Frankfort, Indiana driving a semi for over 25 years. While he was there he was recognized for one million miles of consecutive accident free driving.

On July 11, 1981, Ronnie was married to Vickie (Haughton) Emberton in a garden ceremony at his sister's home (Charlotte Shelley) and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Harold Lashbrook.

Ronnie enjoyed life by driving trucks, helping people, riding motorcycles, working on vehicles, mowing yards, helping with Boy Scouts as an assistant leader, spending time with his family, mission trips and providing dinners for church events. He was a member of the Colfax Wesleyan Church where he served in multiple positions, such as board member, Sunday school supervisor, event organizer and caterer.

He went on many mission trips, his favorite areas were Africa (Xai-Xai, Mozambique) and South Africa (Tarkastad). He was also a member of Cruisers for Christ CMA Crawfordsville, Indiana where he served as president for many years doing events in and around Crawfordsville, Montgomery County fair, Christmas parade, fellowship meals and rides – Run for the Son, sponsored by CMA CFC, Tom's Marina Motor Cross and Iron Man.

Ronnie was a loving husband, father and grandfather and will be missed dearly by all who knew him.

“ Vickie and family, I was so sad to hear from Dad that Ronnie had passed away. I will carry many fond memories of him: youth parties at your house, being one of the first faces I saw at camp each year, loaning me a camera for my missions trip to Swaziland, always making people laugh, and my favorite, jumping into our family photos at Colfax Wesleyan. May the wonderful memories and the comfort of our Father carry you all through this time.
