

Rosemary Martin

January 9, 2013

Age: 96 Widowed City of Residence: Columbus, Ohio and formally of Lebanon, Indiana Date of Death: Tuesday, January 8, 2013 Place of Death: At Arlington Court in Columbus, Ohio

Rosemary Martin, 96, was a lifelong resident of Lebanon; however, in 2006, she became a resident of Columbus, Ohio, to be near her daughter. Mrs. Martin passed away on Tuesday, January 8, 2013. She was born on May 25, 1916, in Lebanon, Indiana, the daughter of the late Vern and Zora (Huffman) Martin. Reared and educated in Lebanon, Indiana, she graduated from Lebanon High School. On June 19, 1937, in Danville, Indiana, she was married to Charles E. Martin. Mr. Martin passed away on January 27, 2001. Rosemary worked downtown Indianapolis in the jewelry department at LS Ayres and L. Strauss. For many years, she assisted her father, Vern Martin, clerking local area auction sales. She also worked as a receptionist for two local dentists, Dr. Travis Osborne and, for several years, Dr. Gary French. At one time, Rosemary was head of the Boone County March of Dimes. She was the first woman appointed to the Lebanon City Planning Commission. An important part of Rosemary's life was her family and friends. As a devoted wife, mother and grandmother, Rosemary loved spending time with family and friends and entertaining them, as she was an excellent cook. She took great pleasure in landscape gardening and was a skilled seamstress and knitter. Among other interests, Rosemary was an avid reader and she enjoyed golfing, fishing and traveling with her husband, Charles. Memberships: Former member of Tri
