“ *I was a pharmacist that worked with Sandy at Georgetown Pharmacy. She knew the patients and always had a smile for them and loved to joke with them. She was fun to work with. The thing I loved most about her was her love of Jesus Christ and I'm sure that is where her love of people came from. Although she is with the Lord now, she will be missed here on earth. “ Sandy was my Sunday school teacher at the Whitestown Baptist Church, along with my 2 younger sisters. She was so much fun to be around. Sandy would go as far as to pick my sister's and me up from our home and plan play dates. One in particular I remember was going to the Zionsville Lions Club park. Sandy will be so very missed. Thoughts and prayers to her family. Leslie (Andrews) White.
