“ Oh sam, the memories we had as we worked together at laughners for many years. The fun we had was never ending. As Richard was our boss we sure gave him a run for his money. You will be truly missed, but still in my heart. Rest in peace my forever friend. Ann Bowen

“ I remember...I remember being in your wedding. It was December and Janet and I wore cranberry /wine colored gowns.
I remember coming from NY to visit during Easter to your farm and later to your house on Lebanon St. when our children were young.
I remember all the recipes we talked about, tried, and kept or threw out.
I remember your visits to NY and the boys going to the store next door to Mom's for candy or ice cream.
I remember flying to Indiana for Thanksgiving weekend to meet and hold your newborn son Travis almost two months old.
I remember eating David Allen Chocolates.
I remember going to Lebanon's Fourth of July parades. We all loved them- especially mom.
I remember many shopping trips to Indy.
I remember going to eat at Laughner's. Loving the variety and getting to pick whatever we wanted.
I remember taking our kids to Conner Prairie.
I remember your talent when I get out the Christmas ornaments you cross stitched with our names on.
I remember you and I sitting with Mom as she took her last breath.
I remember when you were sick and we would come to take you to WalMart, for a drive, dinner out, a thrift store visit, and almost always a stop at the ice cream store.
I remember when Frank, Karen, Larry and I and your family got together to celebrate your 60 th birthday.
I remember as we got older we didn't always see eye to eye but that will only be one brief thought so that I sit back and dwell on all the good times.
Rest In Peace dear sister Sam. ❤️

“ Sandra passed away on her own terms and peacefully surrounded by the people who love her the most. She was my best friend and I cherish the 6 years we spent together every day as partner's in crime. She spoke often of the love of her life, Richard Huddleson. They are dancing to their wedding song now.
