“ Sandy and her sweet family were part of the St. Mark's family when I was growing up. For years I ordered beautiful and thoughtful arrangements from Blooms by Sandy, not even knowing she was the dear Sandy from my childhood! She lovingly created my father's funeral flowers last year. She had so many talents. Know that we are praying for comfort for your family....

“ You were my first college roommate at Purdue. Although we switched roomies after the first year we were all good friends at Purdue.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I knew Sandy through the garden project; she was unfailingly patient and generous with her time and knowledge, even in the process of starting a new business and maintaining an existing one. I liked and respected her enormously. Your family will be in my thoughts.

“ *Oh, Sandy-this is heartbreaking. I remember you from fall trips to Miller's Orchard. Then I got to know you in high school and was blessed to find you on my dorm floor at Purdue. So many wonderful memories. You & Tom took me to watch a mare giving birth at the stables at Purdue. When the scent of snickerdoodles filled the dorm, Sandy was in the kitchen. I loved driving up to your farm market from Indy.; we'd compare notes on our kids and catch up. I loved that you had your own floral business and included family in it. You are an amazing Earth Mother.
Tom, Diana, Matthew & family, you are in my prayers.*

“ Tom, Matt, Diana and Ben and kids, We are so sorry to hear this. It's still hard to believe. We were blessed to know you all these years and spend time together. Sandy and I had a wonderful friendship. I will miss calling her just to chat, dropping in to say hello, and for so, so long working together in flower shops and Psi- lotes.♥ Sandy loved you all so deeply, and was a dear friend.

I can see her now, walking in God's Heavenly garden, telling Him all about you. Maybe, just maybe, telling Him to have this weeded, this picked, that needs..lol!! Cling to each other and the wonderful memories she made with you. She still lives in your hearts and mine.
