“ I met Sharon 40 years ago at Arbuckle Acres in Brownsburg. We both had children playing and we were both very pregnant. A friendship was born that day and we spent many days together with children, playing euchre and visiting one another throughout the years even when we were miles apart. Deepest sympathy to John, Joleen, Shari, and Jonathon. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.

Janey, thanks so much for sharing. She's had quite a difficult road. Although we are happy she has been liberated from her pain, we feel her absence so deeply. Bless you for the journey the two of you shared together.
